

Competitive and Formula-Based Public Transportation Grants for 2005-2007

The Washington State Department of Transportation (WSDOT) awarded over $50 million in public transportation grants statewide for 2005-2007 projects—$27 million in state and federal competitive grants and $23 million in state formula-based grants. Grant recipients include public transit systems, non-profit agencies, tribal governments, senior centers, cities, counties, and other public transportation providers.

Public Transportation Grant Program Project Lists

WSDOT awarded approximately $52 million in public transportation grants for the 2005-2007 biennium. During this time, $27 million was awarded in state and federal competitive grants and approximately $26 million was awarded in state formula-based grants. Grant recipients across Washington State include more than the public transportation agencies, including: non profit agencies, long term care facilities, cities, counties, tribal governments, other public transportation providers. The projects funded across the state during the 2005-2007 biennium will provide and improve public transportation through: services to special needs populations, increased intercity routes, and purchase of updated buses and equipment.
